

3 types of shoppers at Wal-Mart

Well-dressed

Get in and out

Everything!

Well-dressed -- Seasonal stuff – list on phone – after church (Sundays / Wednesday) – cash

Get in and out -- Hair up in bun – list on clipboard – every other day (every day) –
come in wearing pj's – pre-paid –

Everything – all over the place – come in with paper list – come in with family – credit

Wal-Mart is a friendly place to shop in Texas. Wal-Mart is everywhere. There are 3 different types of shoppers at Wal-Mart. They are well-dressed shoppers, get in and out shoppes, and the everything shoppers.

The first category is well-dressed shoppers. They look at seasonal stuff. They have their list of their phones. They sometimes come after church on Sundays. They pay with cash.

The second type is get in and out shoppers. They have their hair up in a bun. They have their list on a clipboard. They come every other day. They come in wearing pj's. They come in pre-paid.

The third type is the everything shopper. They are all over the place. They have a paper list. They come with the family, and they pay by credit.

In conclusion, wal-mart is a popular place to shop, a good place to find bargains. Wal-mart has all kinds of shoppers.